A former at-risk child turned leader and entrepreneur, Fahd Alhattab's mission is to enable people to drive change, build their dreams, and embrace leadership. Though still a youth, Fahd launched a camp for underprivileged kids; raised more than 1.2 million dollars for Ottawa charities; and spoke at National We Day, Count Me In and many other youth collectively now over 22,000 people! His savvy skills and off-beat attitude landed him Canada's Top 20 Under 20 Award in 2013. Fahd has built a reputable career in leadership development, motivational speaking, and creative fundraising. With a fun demeanour and a background in youth work, Fahd entertains and engages the audience, and leaves them feeling empowered to be the leaders of today.

Gerri Nakirigya Lutaaya belongs to the Ngonde clan within the Buganda kingdom. Guided by philanthropist Mary McLeod Bethune's words that "we have a powerful potential in our youth, and we must have the courage to change old ideas and practices so that we may direct their power toward good ends", Gerri maintains a spirited zest and commitment to young people because of their potential to spark action, impact and change on society's most pressing issues. With 8+ years of professional experience, Gerri has gained an in-depth understanding of the nonprofit sector working for internationally recognized charities including Invisible Children, the United Nations Association in Canada and the Stephen Lewis Foundation.
