

This will be a one-day leadership journey for student leaders and teacher advisors with all levels of experience. The agenda is designed to provide participants with motivation, inspiration and information to make their schools a better place to live and learn. This is an excellent opportunity for students who might be thinking about taking on a leadership role in their schools. It is also an chance for advisors to network and learn.

• About the Speakers

Nick Foley is the founder of Celebrate the Hero, Good Sport and the Non-Profit Move for Inclusion. Most recently Move for Inclusion took Nick on a coast to coast bike trip from Victoria BC to St John's, stopping at various locations to speak about Inclusion of all people without bias. On his ride Nick spoke to thousands of people on the importance of creating a culture of understanding and acceptance as well as raising money for charities. Nick is driven by the desire to perpetuate an environment of self-worth, acceptance, and empowerment in communities. Nick is the very proud father of beautiful Brynn and Welles from whom he has learned more than he ever thought imaginable. They have been, and continue to be the greatest teachers in his life.

Ian Tyson takes a deep look into personal attitude and how it affects our day to day lives, especially as leaders. While not advocating blind optimism; Ian instead looks at a more complete understanding; that while life can throw us curve balls - everyone can get through it with perseverance and the right attitude. By citing humorous personal examples to overcome this, and giving hands on tips, Ian shows how letting go of negativity can really improve our outlook, all with an eye towards leadership. Capitalizing on his trademark style of storytelling with wit and wisdom intertwined, this presentation will leave audiences with a new mantra for life "Hooray For Everything!"

The Horizons Leadership Conference is a leadership experience provided by the Canadian Student Leadership Association. Our aim is to motivate, inspire and educate advisors and student leaders across Canada.
