

This will be a one-day leadership journey for student leaders and teacher advisors with all levels of experience. The agenda is designed to provide participants with motivation, inspiration and information to make their schools a better place to live and learn. This is an excellent opportunity for students who might be thinking about taking on a leadership role in their schools.

• About the Speakers

Alison Springer is a professional youth speaker and Founder of the Young Women of Power Conference for teen girls. She has been working with youth for over 15 years and she loves it. She knows how to captivate and keep teens engaged through her use of memorable sayings, innovative exercises, creative flair and an audacity to do whatever it takes to keep their attention so the main message gets through. Alison's passion is in helping young leaders achieve their potential in the most equal way possible.

Ash Baer has been facilitating leadership programs for the past nine years. She has travelled across Canada and to Europe working with the coolest student leaders sharing her passion of authentic, positive, and fun leadership experiences. Ash has a passion to create safe and positive spaces in the opportunities she gets to spend with youth. She adds important leadership lessons to fun games and works hard to be a strong mental health advocate. Ash is excited to learn and grow more with you at Horizons through sharing stories, laughter, and support of making our schools, communities, and world a more positive space!

The Horizons Leadership Conference is a leadership opportunity provided and supported by the Canadian Student Leadership Association. Our aim is to Motivate, Inspire and Educate advisors and student leaders across Canada.
